

Hazel L. Wetherford
Director at Large

Hazel Wetherford is currently the Deputy City Manager for the City of Dublin. As the Deputy City Manager, she manages the Office of Economic Development, and citywide initiatives of major economic and financial importance. In this role, she oversees the City Council's strategic priorities related to the implementation of the Downtown Dublin Preferred Vision and the Fallon Road Economic Development Zone.

Ms. Wetherford has been with the City since 2011. Prior to Dublin, she previously spent time at the California State Legislature and the City of Brentwood. Ms. Wetherford also enjoys giving back to the local government profession, having served as President of Municipal Management Association of Northern California, and currently volunteers with several organizations such as the Local Government Hispanic Network, Urban Land Institute's Technical Assistance for Communities, California Association for Local Economic Development, Cal-ICMA, and the CalCities Diversity/Inclusion committee.

Ms. Wetherford holds a Master's in Public Administration from the University of San Francisco, is an Accredited California Economic Developer, a Credentialed Government Leader, and has more than 20 years of experience in local government administration.