

Innovation is Easier than You Think.

Shrinking budgets. Siloed units. Single points of failure. Interdepartmental workgroups can create innovation and collaboration within organizations, build bridges between diverse expertise and perspectives, and can even serve as leadership opportunities for your staff.

SCOTTSDALE HISPANIC NETWORK will share our experience of creating, refreshing, and sustaining cross-functional workgroups that break down silos and cultivate a culture of innovation at the City of Scottsdale.

Join us Thursday, June 20th, 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
