Full Venue Comparison – Long Beach (LGHN Event)

Venue	Venue Cost (Est.)	Total Event Cost (Est.)	Tier	Typical Events Hosted	Cost Drivers & Tradeoffs	Permits & Hidden Costs
Rancho Los Alamitos Historic Ranch and Gardens	~$10K+	$25K – $45K+	Premium	Weddings, galas, fundraisers	Outdoor blank-slate → rentals, catering, lighting required	High production costs (tenting, power, restrooms); vendor restrictions
440 Elm	$6K–$15K	$25K – $50K+	Premium	Weddings, corporate galas	Historic ballroom → built-in elegance, less outdoor setup	Premium staffing, catering minimums, service fees
Ovation Square	$3K–$8K	$15K – $30K	Mid-premium	Corporate events, concerts, private parties	Built for events + live music → strong AV + flexible layout	No city permits typically needed; add-ons (AV, rooms, staffing) can add 30–60% to base cost
The Reef on the Water	~$3K start	$12K – $25K	Value	Weddings, banquets, corporate events	All-inclusive → food, bar, staffing bundled	Service charges (20%+), minimum spend requirements

Long Beach Museum of Art

ABOUT LBMA

Where Art & History
Meets the Oceanview

THE PERFECT DAY FOR YOUR EVENT AWAITS AT CLAIRE'S AT THE MUSEUM

Since 1950, the Long Beach Museum of Art has been home to countless weddings, events and celebrations overlooking the ocean.

Located on the scenic California coastline, the Museum's grounds comprise a historic 1911 craftsman home, two-story gallery space, and unobstructed view of the Queen Mary and Catalina Island.

In 2019, LBMA acquired LBMA Downtown, a gallery and meeting space in the heart of the East Village Arts District—complete with 35-foot ceilings, exposed brick walls, polished concrete floors, and sweeping natural light.

Both venues are perfect for proposals, weddings, rehearsal dinners, receptions (cocktail and seated), meetings, luncheons, photoshoots and more.

Allow our Special Events team to bring your vision to life!

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Policy

WHAT

As members of the Local Government Hispanic Network (LGHN), we adhere to our organizational mission and objectives. In addition, we abide by the ICMA Code of Ethics, serve all members, facilitate representative governance, and are guided by the principles of servant leadership. Moreover, we embrace, encourage, and respect our members' differences in age, color, ethnicity, family or marital status, gender identity or expression, language, national origin, physical and mental ability, political affiliation, race, religion, sexual orientation, socio-economic status, veteran status, and other characteristics that make our members unique.

LGHN's members believe that a core function of the organization is to provide tools, resources, and training to build local governments and our members' capacity and competency to deliver high-quality community outcomes with compassion and empathy by aligning our performance with our commitment to diversity, inclusion, and equity. We define these terms as follows:

- Diversity. We recognize and honor individual differing interests, values, experiences, knowledge, and strengths and see them as a critical asset to our vocation and the delivery of meaningful results to our members and the communities we serve.

- Equity. As public servants, we define equity as the quality of being just, leveling the playing field, creating shared opportunities, advantage, consideration, or latitude to all parties.
- Inclusion. Our association defines inclusion as the purposeful intent to embrace all people, including those who may be excluded or marginalized by race, gender identity, sexual orientation, ability, national origin, political affiliation, and other characteristics that make our members unique.

WHY

LGHN is committed to fostering, cultivating, and preserving a culture of diversity, inclusion, and equity in all aspects of our work. The collective sum of each of our differences, life experiences, knowledge, inventiveness, innovation, self-expression, unique capabilities, and talents that our members invest in their communities and our organization represents our culture, reputation, mission, and results.

HOW

LGHN will provide opportunities for member training and dialogue to facilitate our members shared learning and development, including:

- Provide and support cultural competency and unconscious bias workshops.
- Share tools and techniques to facilitate member learning, growth, curiosity, and development.
- Distribute a member commitment statement.
- Engage service providers and affirm their dedication to diversity, equity and inclusion aligned with LGHN's commitment.
- Assist members to identify resources to facilitate cultural competency dialogues in a safe place and community engagement.
- Practice diversity, equity, and inclusion individually as well as explore new ways to become an ally within our communities and organizations that we serve and agencies and affiliates of ICMA.

Joel Valdez Legacy Award

The International Hispanic Network presents the Joel Valdez Legacy Award to someone who has made a significant contribution to the promotion of Hispanics in local government and or to the International Hispanic Network organization throughout their career. The awardee may be retired or a current professional manager in local government.

Nomination Criteria

The Joel Valdez Legacy Award is given to recognize years of service in local government to a person who has supported the International Hispanic Network or the professional growth of Hispanics in local government. The award recognizes an individual's strong or exceptional contributions to the local government profession and major contributions beyond direct service to local government. Specific criteria may include the following activities or contributions:

- Consistent pattern of leadership in state, regional and national issues related to the local government management profession.
- Strong support to peers, colleagues, and young professionals entering the profession as a mentor, counselor, or "sage."
- A history of developing and implementing programs and activities that promotes the growth of Hispanics in local government professional management.
- Consistently strong support of the International Hispanic Network's mission.
- A guiding force in the local government profession.

The individual nominated for this award must have made a lasting impact on the community and profession. A nomination for the Joel Valdez Legacy Award may be made by any member of the International Hispanic Network or Legacy Award Committee. Self-nominations will not be accepted.

To nominate an individual for the Joel Valdez Award, please prepare a one-page memo which addresses why the nominated person should receive this award. Please address the activities and contributions of the nominee as stated above.

Contact with questions or for more information related to the Joel Valdez Legacy Award.
