

Raymond H. Gonzales has over 20 years of experience in Federal, State and local government. He currently serves as County Manager for Adams County, where he oversees a budget of approximately $468 million that provide direct services for the community through Public Works, Parks and Open Space, Community & Economic Development and Human Services Departments; Administrative functions of Facilities and Fleet, Information Technology, Finance and Retirement; and a newly dedicated People and Culture Services where he oversees the empowerment of over 2000 employees personal impact, influence and inspiration regardless of title or designation. An ever industrious conductor, Raymond continuously strives for organizational improvement and premier delivery of public services to meet the needs of an ever increasing diverse community.