

Ramiro Salazar serves as Library Director for the City of San Antonio, TX. As chief executive officer of the library system, he is responsible for the central library and 29 branch libraries. He previously served as interim assistant city manager for San Antonio, director of the Dallas, El Paso and Eagle Pass TX library systems. Community activities include mentoring with Big Brothers, Big Sisters; San Antonio Youth Literacy programs, Communities Putting Prevention to Work, and advisory board member for the home instruction program for preschool youngsters with the National Council of Jewish Women.