

Aubrey Gonzalez serves as Special Assistant to the City Manager/Police Community Liaison working in the Police Department in Phoenix, AZ. Aubrey has achieved significant professional advancement in her 14 years with the City due to her commitment to excellence in her job performance, ability to work effectively with all levels of the organization and the community, and her ability to motivate her teams. She has local government experience in the areas of community engagement, community development, grant administration, city planning, program management and leadership. She is an active member of the Phoenix Hispanic Network (PHN), LGHN, and ICMA. She serves as a board member of Helping Phoenix Neighborhoods, former board member of PHN and is a mentor with the MentorPHX Program. Aubrey received her Master of Public Administration and Bachelor of Science in Urban Planning from Arizona State University.